This organization is a local chapter of the National Association of Women Business Owners, a not-for-profit corporation, formed in the District of Columbia, which is hereinafter referred to as “NAWBO”, and will not take actions or positions that are inconsistent with the bylaws and policies of NAWBO.

The chapter is a subordinate unit of NAWBO and shall not abrogate the rights of the members of the national organization by creating categories of membership not recognized by NAWBO, refusing to offer categories of membership recognized by NAWBO, or by altering the membership voting rights in any way.

Section 2. Purpose

NAWBO’s vision is to propel women entrepreneurs into economic, social and political spheres of power worldwide.

NAWBO’s mission is to:

- strengthen the wealth-creating capacity of NAWBO’s members and promote economic development
- create innovative and effective changes in the business culture
- build strategic alliances, coalitions, and affiliations, and
- transform public policy and influence opinion-makers

ARTICLE II: OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the chapter, organized as a non-profit corporation 501c(6), are as follows:

- to encourage, support and educate women who own and operate businesses
- to provide a national and international voice for women who own and operate businesses
- to foster the economic stability of businesses owned and operated by women

- to encourage business ownership by women
- to collaborate with or create entities that complement the chapter’s objectives, and
- to have a membership representative of the universe of women business owners

ARTICLE III: MEMBERSHIP AND PARTICIPATION IN NAWBO

Section 1. Voting Membership

Only an individual who identifies as a woman and is a business owner as determined by NAWBO may join NAWBO as a voting member. An individual business owner who has been a voting member of NAWBO for five years and has subsequently divested his/her ownership interest and/or retired from active ownership of a business may continue as a voting member of NAWBO provided there is no break in membership and the individual meets all other requirements to be a member of NAWBO in good standing.

Section 2: Approval of Members

Any individual who wishes to become a NAWBO member shall submit the NAWBO membership application online at nawbo.org. All applications will be accepted based on the member definition set forth by NAWBO. Applicants whose applications are approved shall become members of NAWBO New York City Chapter upon payment of the required membership dues.

Section 3. Membership Categories

Membership categories in the chapter, both voting and non-voting, shall be the same as those for NAWBO, including all rights and privileges thereof. It is the obligation of the local NAWBO chapter to enforce the correct membership category of each new member.

Section 4. Dues for Members

Membership dues and fees are assessed by NAWBO. Each chapter member shall pay the applicable standard membership dues as established and charged by NAWBO. Dues and fees (hereinafter "Membership Dues") will be collected electronically at nawbo.org. Once a member joins, the Membership Dues will be collected electronically either monthly on or after the first (1st) day of each month or annually upon annual renewal date. The NAWBO Board of Directors shall establish the dues structure as published in the policies and procedures handbook which may be revised from time to time. Chapters will receive a percentage of all dues collected for members of the chapter.

If a member wishes to transfer from one chapter to another, NAWBO will transfer membership and the established amount of the monthly billing will be rebated to the new chapter upon written request of the member via email to memberservices@nawbo.org. Payment transfer will begin the first day of the following month. If the transferring member has paid her dues annually (i.e., one payment for the entire year), the new chapter shall not receive a portion of the already-paid dues but shall receive a portion of the next and successive annually-paid dues that are paid by the member while residing at the new chapter.

Section 5. Termination of Membership

A. Involuntary

NAWBO has the sole right to terminate membership of any individual as provided in its policies and procedures as may be revised from time to time. A chapter may recommend to NAWBO any member(s) for involuntary termination or it may censure any member for good cause by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) vote of the chapter's board in accordance with the disciplinary methods described by the most current edition of Robert's Rules of Order.

B. Voluntary

Any member may resign by cancelling her membership online at NAWBO.org. If a member stops paying her dues, her membership will be terminated. Additionally, if a credit card does not process, there will be a 30-day grace period to rectify the issue. No portion of any dues paid shall be refunded to the resigned member, and the member shall remain liable for any accrued and/or unpaid charges.

A. President and President-Elect

The president and president-elect shall serve a one (1) year term. The president and president-elect shall serve no more than two (2) consecutive terms in each of the roles as specified in this sentence. The president-elect shall automatically serve as president and the president shall automatically serve as immediate past president the following year subject to these bylaws.

B. Treasurer and Secretary

The treasurer and the secretary shall each serve a two (2) year renewable term (maximum 4 years). One person may be elected to serve as both treasurer and secretary for the same term.

Section 2. Directors

A. Immediate Past President

The immediate past president may serve for a period of up to two years.

B. Term

Directors of the board may serve a one (1) or a two (2) year term, and may serve consecutive terms for a total of no more than four (4) years. If a director is selected to fill a vacancy in an unexpired term of six months or more, such service will count toward a director's maximum term of service on the board.

C. Service as an Officer

Service as an officer shall not count as part of a director's term on the board. With the exception of the immediate past president, however, no director shall serve for more than six (6) consecutive years cumulatively as an officer and director.

D. Break in Service

At least one (1) year must lapse before a member who has completed the maximum term of service can be re-elected to the board.

E. Exceptions to Term Limits

Any exceptions to the limits on terms of directors must be approved by a vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the number of directors fixed by the board pursuant to Article V.

ARTICLE VIII. BOARD RESIGNATIONS, REMOVAL, AND VACANCIES

The removal of a director shall be effective only by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the member of directors fixed by the board pursuant to Article V. A director who is absent from three (3) meetings of the board shall be subject to removal if the reasons given for such absences are not acceptable to a majority of the board. It is not NAWBO's intention to have any board member removed from office unless it is clear that the board member's actions are detrimental to the well being of the chapter. Before any meeting is called to remove an officer, the Presidents' Assembly must be notified and NAWBO National must approve of the meeting.

Section 3. Vacancy

A vacancy in the office of president shall be filled by the president-elect for the remainder of the term, followed by a full term as president. If there is no president elect or other officer who is able to step into the role as president, the NAWBO Board of Directors will appoint a liaison to oversee the business of the chapter until a president can be identified. A vacancy in any other officer position shall be filled by a majority vote of the board of directors. If the board loses a member and falls below the minimum required board seats, the president can appoint a new board member.

ARTICLE IX. MEETINGS OF THE BOARD

Section 1. Regular Meetings

The board will hold no fewer than four (4) meetings per year, at least one (1) of which shall be a face-to-face meeting. The board shall establish the time and place of such meetings and provide at least seven (7) days' notice to each director.

Section 2. Special Meetings

Notice of the special meeting, stating the purpose, place, day and hour shall be given to each director at least three (3) days prior to the meeting.

Section 3. Waiver of Notice

Any director may waive advance notice requirement of any meeting. The attendance of a director at a meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting.

Section 4. Quorum and Voting

A majority of the number of directors fixed by the board pursuant to Article V but no fewer than five [5] directors, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a meeting of the board. Each director shall be entitled to one (1) vote. If a quorum is present when a vote is taken, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present is the act of the board.

A director may not vote by proxy at any meeting of the board or any board committee.

Section 5. Meetings by Telephone or Teleconference

Directors may participate in a meeting of the board or a committee of the board by telephone or similar communications technology in which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time. Such participation shall constitute presence in person at the meeting.

Section 6. Action without a Meeting

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the board or any committee of the board, with the exception of the Executive Committee, may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, is approved by a majority of directors. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a vote taken at a meeting and shall be filed with the records of the proceedings of the board or committee. Consent in writing may be given by email, facsimile or other written communication.

In the event of a chapter emergency or an emergency arising due to an act of God, the board shall have the power to cancel or postpone the annual meeting and to conduct such business as is necessary for the well-being of the chapter.

ARTICLE XI: COMMITTEES, TASK FORCES AND ADVISORY BODIES

Section 1. Designation of Committees and Other Bodies

The board may designate or dissolve one or more standing or special (ad hoc) committees, taskforces or other bodies to advance the business of the board and the chapter. Each committee or other body may exercise the authority granted to it by the board's enabling resolution.

Section 2. Limitation on the Powers of Committees and Other Bodies

No committee shall have the authority of the board to amend, alter or repeal the bylaws; elect, appoint or remove any director or paid staff (if appropriate for your chapter); adopt a plan of merger or a plan of consolidation with another entity; or amend, alter or repeal any resolution of the board. All standing and ad hoc committees are to report promptly to the board and only take such actions as are specifically designated by these bylaws or in the resolution establishing the committee and setting forth its duties and responsibilities. No member of any committee or other body shall speak on behalf of the chapter unless authorized to do so by the board.

Section 3. Standing Committees of the Board

Standing committees are permanent committees of the board. Unless noted elsewhere, the chair is appointed annually by the president. The standing committees include but may not be limited to:

- Executive Committee
- Audit Committee
- Governance Committee

A. Executive Committee

There shall be five members of the Executive Committee. The committee shall consist of the president, president-elect, secretary, treasurer, and a fifth person selected by the president from the Board of Directors. In the event that the secretary and treasurer positions are filled by one individual, the president will also appoint another member of the Board of Directors to join the committee. (Executive staff may serve as an ex-officio nonvoting member of the Executive Committee). The Executive Committee shall meet at least twice a year. The Executive Committee shall have and may exercise the powers of the board to take all such actions as the board itself could take when it is empowered by the board to take such action or when the board cannot convene a quorum in a timely manner to respond to necessary action. The executive committee shall approve all Vice President appointments made by the President. In addition to the limits of powers listed in Section 2 of this article, the Executive Committee shall have no power to approve the annual budget, to terminate the executive director/management staff, or to fill vacancies among the officers or directors. The meeting/voting of the executive committee does not constitute a quorum for voting on issues that need to be addressed by the full board.

B. Audit Committee

The president shall appoint an audit committee of at least three members (including the treasurer), one of whom may be appointed from outside the membership of the board. The Audit Committee is charged with recommending the firm to be employed as the independent auditor and reviewing with the auditor the report of the auditor, any related management letter and management's response to the recommendations made by the auditor in connection with the audit. The Audit Committee shall organize and conduct all investigations that arise from allegations of fraud. The treasurer is prohibited from serving as chair of the Audit Committee.

C. Governance Committee

At the president's discretion, the president shall appoint a Governance Committee of at least three members of the board. The Governance Committee is responsible for maintaining the capacity and effectiveness of the board through periodic review of board policies and procedures, evaluating board performance; identifying the qualities and characteristics required for effective governance and forwarding these to the Nominating Committee; and suggesting candidates for election as directors and officers.

Section 4. Chapter Representation on NAWBO's Presidents Assembly

The chapter president and president-elect are the only authorized representatives of the chapter eligible to serve on NAWBO's Presidents Assembly Steering Committee (hereinafter "PASC") and one such representative is required to participate in monthly teleconference meetings and attend one regional NAWBO Leadership Academy session. Their actions must be a reflection of the deliberately considered and formally approved position of the chapter board.

The purpose of the PASC is to ensure strategic alignment between the chapters and NAWBO; to serve as the voice of chapter members at the national level; to facilitate direct communications between the chapter leadership and the national leadership; to create a sustained community of leaders through leadership development and education; to assure the quality and consistency of service to members; and to uphold the common standards and policies of NAWBO.

Section 5. Affiliation with State Operating Organization

The board may negotiate a Memorandum of Understanding with NAWBO for the purpose of establishing the chapter's ability to participate state-wide with other NAWBO chapters, either in the formulation of state-wide public policy and/or in the collective administration/management of the chapters at a state level.

Section 6. Chapter Political Action Committee (PAC)

The board reserves the sole authority to establish and maintain a Separate Segregated Fund or SSF (commonly referred to as a Political Action Committee or PAC) in accordance with state or local laws. All PACS can only be formed after receiving written approval from NAWBO. If the board establishes a PAC, the board shall appoint a treasurer of the SSF and any other officers required by law, who shall report to the board and be responsible for the fulfillment of all state and local reporting requirements.

The board will review at least annually the development and disbursement strategy, as well as the ongoing management of the SSF. The chapter board shall notify NAWBO of the existence of a PAC and keep them apprised of the PAC activities.

Section 7. Chapter 501c(3)

NAWBO currently has an active 501c(3) for the purpose of being an educational institute for women business owners. In addition, it serves as a conduit for designated donations that can be redirected to the local chapter for the purpose of educational programs. In this way, the local chapters do not need to create their own 501c(3) organization. Nevertheless, should the board wish to establish and maintain a 501c(3) it must obtain prior written approval from NAWBO.

If the board establishes a 501c(3), the board shall appoint a treasurer and any other officers required by law, who shall report to the board and be responsible for the fulfillment of all state and local reporting requirements.

ARTICLE XII: NOMINATIONS AND ELECTIONS

Section 1. Nominating Committee

There shall be a Nominating Committee which shall consist of five members, including the committee co-chairs. The Nominating Committee shall convene annually. The co-chairs of the nominating committee shall be the immediate past president and the Vice President of Governance. If the immediate past president is unable or unwilling to serve, the Vice President of Governance shall chair the committee. If both the immediate past president and the Vice President of Governance are unwilling or unable to serve, the board shall elect the chair from among the current or former members of the board. Three members of the committee shall be elected by the procedures specified in the Policies & Procedures.

Section 2. Nominations of Officers and Directors

An official NOMINATING FORM for vacancies of directors and officers on the board shall be distributed to all voting members of the chapter in good standing in accordance with the procedures specified in the Policies & Procedures. The Nominating Committee shall review nominations for directors and officers of the board as submitted by the voting members, and shall slate their recommended nominees.

Section 4. Petitions

Individuals who are not slated by the Nominating Committee may petition to be a candidate for election as a director in accordance with the Policies & Procedures adopted by the board.

Section 5. Election Process

A. Announcement of Slate

The slate of candidates nominated by the Nominating Committee shall be announced to members in accordance with the Policies & Procedures adopted by the board.

B. Election of Uncontested Slate

The (board) shall deem an uncontested slate of candidates elected if no other individual qualifies to be a candidate by submitting a petition.

C. Contested Elections

If the Nominating Committee determines that an individual has qualified as a candidate by petition, then ballots drawn according to the procedures established in the Policies & Procedures shall be distributed by email or other suitable electronic means to voting members in good standing. Votes shall be tallied in accordance with the procedures specified in the Policies & Procedures. In a contested election, the officers with the highest number of votes from the voting members in good standing voting in the election shall be deemed elected.

D. Announcement of Results

Results of the election shall be announced to the membership by the president within 5 days of the election as specified in the Policies & Procedures.

Section 6. Write-in Ballots

Write-in ballots are not allowed in any election for an officer or director.

ARTICLE XIII: CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

Section 1. Conflict of Interest Policy

The board shall adopt and annually review NAWBO's Conflict of Interest Policy applicable to all chapter officers and directors.

Section 2. Disclosure of Possible Conflicts of Interest

Each member of the board shall annually complete, sign and return NAWBO's conflict of interest disclosure form designed to assure compliance with the board's stated policy. All directors and officers shall disclose to the board any possible conflict of interest at the earliest practicable time, and no officer or director shall vote on any matter under consideration at a board or committee meeting in which such director or officer has a conflict of interest. The minutes of such a meeting shall reflect that the director or officer disclosed the conflict of interest and that the director or officer with the conflict abstained from voting on the matter.

Section 3. Violations

Any violation of the Conflict of Interest Policy shall be cause for immediate removal of the director or officer from the board.

ARTICLE XIV: INDEMNIFICATION

The chapter shall have the authority to indemnify and hold harmless to the full extent permitted by law and to purchase and maintain liability insurance on behalf of any person who serves or has served as a director, officer, employee, or authorized agent of the chapter, or who serves or who has served at the request of the chapter as a director, officer, employee or authorized agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other entity.

ARTICLE XV: PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the most current edition of ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER, Newly Revised, shall govern the chapter in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any special rules of order the chapter board may adopt.

ARTICLE XVI: AMENDMENTS TO THE BYLAWS

Section 1. Proposal of Amendments

A. Authority to Propose Amendments

The directors may propose amendments by a majority vote of the number of directors fixed by the board pursuant to Article V.

B. Review and Comment

Proposed amendments must be published and available for review and comment by the directors for fourteen (14) days. At the close of the review period, the board shall consider the comments received and finalize the amendment(s) for presentation to the voting members by an affirmative vote of two-thirds (2/3) of the number of directors fixed by the board pursuant to Article V. The board then shall provide fourteen (14) days written notice to each member eligible to vote on the amendment(s).
